Chapter 1 by Bradley Considine

My eyes opened. My chest expanded and my heart pounded as my body scrambled for air. My legs lay lifeless dangling in this space, my body bound to this chair.

Nothing, as I glanced around, the soft sound of ringing in the distance, but I only saw the dark beyond me.

What had happened? My mind started to race and my heart pounding out my chest, my stomach turning with the sense of dread.

My body could not move, Immediately I tried to squeeze a fist, move my legs, nothing. My body was lifeless and limp, I wasn't bound to this chair, I just couldn't move from it.

Sweat trickled down my forehead, my eyes raced the area, but only the darkness was there. I was alone. Or at least I thought I was.

Then a voice cracked the silence..
